FOUNDER

John Berry (a.k.a. Coach Berry) has been a skill development trainer since 1993 and has instructed/coached over a 1,000 kids. Dating back, Coach Berry has coached at the recreation, travel, AAU, Junior Varsity and Varsity levels and is now the Head Boys Varsity Basketball Coach at Woods Charter School. Since 2007, the Woods Charter basketball program has been transformed into elite status.

The "surgical instruction" style, with an emphasis on detail has been Coach Berry's calling card. Coach Berry is, and always has been committed to helping youth in life and on the basketball court. At Youth Hoops, he pledges the same!

Individual camp sessions are run by a select group of highly-qualified coaches.

OUR PROGRAM

Youth Hoops developed a basketball skills development curriculum, which consists of five (5) courses: ball handling, shooting, offensive moves, defense and inside play. Each course runs roughly two (2) months or seven (7) individual sessions.

As each course name suggests, emphasis will be placed on developing that particular skill. Each course will also incorporate "additional" skill development from remaining four (4) courses. In essence, all skills are constantly being development, except that during a given course, emphasis is placed on a given skill.

During sessions, time will be devoted to developing individual skills. Players will be schooled in all aspects of individual offense and defense during teaching stations. These stations will cover ball handling, shooting, passing, screening and man-to-man defense. Each player will receive tons of "hands-on" experience as they go through various drills aimed at teaching the proper techniques of basketball.

Following station work, players will be taught concepts of team offense: floor spacing, passing-and-cutting, dribble-drives, rotations, etc.

Next, there will be "controlled play". This is where players implement skills developed in real-time.

At the start of each session, the coach will deliver "quote-of-the-day" and relate it to things such as communication, self-improvement, what coaches look for in players, etc.

CAMP STRUCTURE

Our camps are great basketball resources for continual improvement! Camps may be attended during basketball season or off-season. Our emphasis is on "individual skill development". A typical class has the following format:

- Coach Talk
- Warm-up
- Emphasized Station
- Additional Station
- Team Offense
- Controlled Scrimmage
